AMERICANS CALL HALT.

Resist the Rebels in Mexico.

Part of the Citizens of the United States Leave
Madera.

Peon Syndicate Forced by
the Insurrectos to Close Their Mills.

Republicans Destroy a Train
and Put to Death Eighty-four Persons.

BY DIRECT WIRE TO THE TIMES.
MEXICO (Mexico) July 21.—(Exclusive Dispatch.) Rebel soldiers under command of Col. Del Toro killed a number of American homes
in Madera early today and carried off all the arms, ammunition and what they could lay their hands
on.

Even the horses kept by the hospital maintained by the Pearson
Company were stolen.

AMERICANS RESIST.
After the looting started the insurrectos formed an armed guard
to prevent any further attempt at their homes. Before this uprising was sent to Del Toro, many of the Americans had been killed, but the threat to fire on the rebels stopped further pillaging.

At least of the raid and fears of further attacks the lumber mills owned by the P. A. Pearson syndicate,
a huge corporation, have suspended operations.

EXODUS.
The afternoon a special train was sent by the officials of the Mexican Northwestern Railroad, also a Pearson concern, to convey the women and children of the Americans to El Paso by way of Chihuahua and Juarez. This train left Madera late this afternoon and a score of armed Americans went as guards.

The Americans on the train are bitter in their denunciation of the raiding rebels and denounce the authorities in Washington for not taking steps toward intervention. While the property of the Madera mills is owned by British capital, all the skilled labor is American.

The force under Col. Del Toro is estimated to have been about 500 men, all mounted. The detachment is undoubtedly part of Gen. Rojas's command. Rojas is the officer who recently fell out with Gen. Orozco and started off to make trouble on his own account. He announced he would operate in the State of Sonora
independent of any other rebel commander.

SIXTY KILLED WHEN
TRAIN IS DYNAMITED.

BY A. P. NIGHT WIRE TO THE TIMES.
MEXICO CITY, July 21.—More than sixty persons were killed and many were wounded in an attack
by Zapatistas on a passenger train
between this city and Cuernavaca.
Morelos, early yesterday.

The Zapatistas, said to number 800,
placed a mine under the railroad
track, which exploded as the locomotive passed over it. The overturned engine hardly had settled when the Zapatistas sprang up from all sides
and poured a murderous fire into the train.

The first object of their attack was a second-class coach, in which were riding a Federal military escort with a captain and three lieutenants. The Federals got out of the car as quickly as possible and a number of the fire of the assailants, but their efforts were futile. The command, with the exception of five wounded and two who escaped, were killed.

Thirty passengers in the second-class coaches were killed and many wounded. In the first-class coach no one was killed but one was dangerously wounded and may die. The conductor, an American named Allen,
was not expected to live. After the train had been swept by their fire, the Zapatistas rushed in and began killing the wounded. A priest, unhurt,
pleaded with De Lora, the rebel leader,
to stop the slaughter and it ceased.
After sucking the express and baggage cars the rebels poured oil on the cars and throwing the dead into the flames.

BIG RUSH TO WORKS.

Has a Band Wagon
of His Own.

California Senator Gets the Upper Hand of the "Forty."

Testimonials and Congratulations Continue to Pour
in on Him.

Receives Message from Wallace Almost Apologetic
in Tone.

WASHINGTON BUREAU OF THE TIMES, July 21.—[Special Dispatch.] "We are tired of having pamphleteers and rebate artists running the Republican party in California."

This is the substance of one of the telegrams received by Senator Works,
apropos the controversy he precipitated with the "progressive" leaders of the State when he issued his statement rebuking them for their contemplated theft of the Republican party machinery and Presidential elections.

But this is not the only telegram Senator Works has received since the one which urged him to resign.

The forty "progressive" who signed the truculent dispatch have had time to think over their hasty act and they are not so fierce and bloodthirsty as of yore. Indeed, the Lieutenant-Governor sent a night letter Friday to the Senator, which was mild
as a dove in its diction when compared with the first telegram, with its death and defiance tone.

TEXT OF WALLACE DISPATCH.
The dispatch follows:
LOS ANGELES, July 19.
"Senator John D. Works,
No. 323 Senate office building,
Washington.

"I have read in the newspapers a telegraphed copy of your letter in reply to the telegram addressed to you
by myself and thirty-nine other progressive Republicans of California. I must confess that I cannot understand your position, although I do gather that you are dissatisfied with the course the progressive Republicans of California are pursuing. I assume that you believe that progressive Republicans should take the same view of the situation that you do. That there may be no misunderstanding will you
therefore kindly inform me by wire
whether you deem it your duty, in view of all the circumstances, to support and vote for Roosevelt, Taft or Wilson, or do you propose to exercise
the only other alternative suggested in your letter and refrain from voting for any candidate?"

[Signed]
"A. J. WALLACE."
WORKS HITS BACK.
Replying to this telegram, Senator
Works wired as follows:
WASHINGTON, July 20.
"Hon. A. J. Wallace, Laughlin building, Los Angeles.

"Will you vote for Taft. Would have voted for and aided in election
of Roosevelt if he had stood on his just right to the nomination at Chicago and run as a Republican. Will not follow him into a new party. I believe the new party abandons ground
that would make his claim invulnerable. Do not believe in new party now or under existing circumstances. Believe it will result in complication disastrous to progressive cause. Whether I vote for Roosevelt now depends on how he is nominated and whether he runs as Republican or not. Have not determined whether will vote for Wilson or not. If I cannot conscientiously vote for Roosevelt I feel I can as I can as progressive Republican, vote
for Wilson consistently if no Republican other than Taft is a candidate."

[Signed]
"JOHN D. WORKS."

SHEAF OF OTHER MESSAGES.
Senator Works exhibited a large sheaf of telegrams today, most of them from California "progressives."
Practically all of them are approving of him. One dated San Francisco is signed by a man who is known to the Senator. He calls himself "Judas."

By way of illustrating the kind of messages he is receiving, the Senator read some of them aloud, not giving the names of the signers, but he declined to allow any copies to be made.

SAMPLE COPIES.
The following are samples of the messages received by the Senator:
"Twenty-six progressives of (a town not far from Los Angeles,) unite in this expressing their approval of your course in rebuking the so-called leaders for their intention to steal
the Republican organization. We heartily endorse what you say on this score."

The names of the twenty-six signers followed.

"PROGRESSIVE DISHONESTY."
"As a lifelong Republican I want to thank you for rebuking the dishonest methods which politicians calling themselves reformers have been willing to adopt. Keep up the fight."

The signature of this is a prominent Los Angeles business man.

"Accept my congratulations," wrote
another.

Principals in Fearful Double Tragedy at Gardena.

Jean Lagier, Suicide, and His Wife, Marie, Murdered.

Lagier, said to be worth $150,000, and the richest man in the neighborhood of Gardena, hacked his wife's head double tragedy appears uncertain. Lagier was over 70 years of age.

MAKE FOUR ARRESTS
IN ROSENTHAL CASE.

Police of Gotham Decline to Divulge Names of Persons Taken in Connection With a Tragedy that Spells
an Investigation of Tammany Hall—New York Citizens Clamor for a House-cleaning.

[BY FEDERAL (WIRELESS) LINE TO THE TIMES.]

NEW YORK BUREAU OF THE TIMES, July 21.—[Special Dispatch.] Four arrests were made tonight in the Rosenthal murder case.
The police are withholding the names.

TAMMANY INVESTIGATION.
It became known today that Tam-
many faces the most thorough probe
ever undertaken by citizens' hearted and weary of political corruption.
Men of wealth and civic daring
probe was planned, and at least six prominent, like the Republican and Democratic national and State councils, are backing this movement to dig to the diabolical depths of alleged protection of criminals and organized graft. These men have put up a purse to retain William J. Burns to lead Tammany, and Tammany is to be glorified to the bottom.

IN THE CHURCHES.
In a number of churches today reference was made to "the shame of the city" and some of the preachers
assailed with pointed periods officers of the city government from the Mayor down. At the Protestant Episcopal Church of St. John the Evangelist, the Rev. John A. Wade, who was once a police chaplain, spoke to a crowded congregation on "Present Conditions in the Police Department," saying: "The sin of New York has been uncovered and men and women
stand aghast. You think Rosenthal was the greatest sinner of all. Not a bit of it. The worst sinners are the so-called respectable who patronize
such gambling houses and those who know the evil and will not remedy it when the power is right at their hands."

"The Mayor of our city," said Mr.
Wade, "is not the friend of the police force when he demands that if there is a cancer in the body politic why put a bandage over it. The latter written by Mayor Gaynor on the Rosenthal case should make every citizen hang his head in shame. If the Mayor of the city of New York has any moral sense, that moral sense was on a vacation when he wrote that letter; if he has any common sense, that common sense was befuddled. I charge
you to remove the cancer."

PAY THE COST.
Most of the men who are paying the cost of the investigation have sworn never to vote for a Tammany candidate, never to rest until Tammany is exposed and destroyed. Several of these remember the great campaign against Tweed and took part in it. Their hatred of Tammany methods is intense and they have threat of repeated partial exposures about election time which will set the wretched leaders shuddering.

trashed, quoting with acerbic Tweed's
boast, "What are you going to do about it?"

NO LET UP.
This time there are to be no let-ups, no hesitation, because the inquiry may lead into unexpected and unpleasant quarters. The lid of the wicked is to be thrown right off the top so that everybody can see what is inside. Every contribution towards this investigation will be published at the top of the list. It is intended to ask for subscriptions. Those already in the pool against Tammany have money in abundance and they will not be niggard in spending it, preserving a complete record, so that when the work is completed, it may be seen by all that the campaign was clean.

INFERNAL MACHINE SET TO DESTROY AN
OAKLAND MAN'S HOUSE AND BURN
PREVENTED FROM GOING OFF.

[By Federal (Wireless) Line to the Times.]
OAKLAND, July 21.—[Special Dispatch.] A carefully concealed plot
to destroy the house and barn of A.
Joquin, a teamster for the Sunset Lumber Company, was discovered tonight when an infernal machine timed to spark at 1 o'clock in the morning
and set fire to Joquin's hay loft was discovered three hours before it was due to spring into action.

Within twenty feet of the barn
stood Joquin's house, which housed
his family, consisting of a wife and five children.

Joquin is an employee of the Sunset Lumber Company. He declared tonight he had frequently had trouble with strikers and that he believed union men were behind the plan to burn his property.

"I think this job was attempted
by strikers," he said. "Last Wednesday I had a row with a number of the unionists near the Sunset yard. There were seven in the gang. One of them brandished a gun, saying, 'he would shoot it down my throat.' After an argument we had a fight and the man was finally disarmed."

"This was not the only time I have had altercations with the unionists.
Several of them make a point of yelling loudly at me upon every occasion,
calling me all kinds of names every time they meet me. I do hauling for the Sunset people on a large scale

DRENCHED IN BLOOD.

Lonely Ranch Scene
of Fearful Crime.

Wealthy Frenchman Hacks
Wife's Head from Her Body; Kills Self.

Son and Daughter Find Him
Barricaded in House
After the Deed.

Fit of Passion Believed to Have Prompted Killing;
Pair Had Quarreled.

AFTER slaying his wife in what is believed to have been a fit of passion, by practically hacking her head from her body with a butcher knife, Jean Lagier, 70 years old, and one of the wealthiest land-owners in the neighborhood of Gardena, killed himself with a pocket-knife, yesterday afternoon.

Before accomplishing his self-destruction, Lagier barricaded himself
in his home but finally admitted his son and daughter and departed himself with such cunning that they neither suspected he had harmed
their mother or contemplated suicide.
Not until the son stumbled over the terribly mutilated body of his mother
in the vineyard did they have an inkling of the tragedy.

The murder and suicide took place
on the ranch on which Lagier lived for nearly thirty years. It is located one and one-half miles from Gardena and is about one-half mile north of Moneta. No one witnessed the murder and when he went to the barn
he gave as a pretense that he intended taking a nap. While lying in the hay he severed his jugular vein with a small pocket-knife.

Lagier's 15-year-old son, Jean, and his 12-year-old daughter, Marie, were away from home at the time their mother was killed. It is thought that the aged Frenchman murdered his wife shortly before 3 o'clock in the afternoon. Her body was found lying in the grape patch to the east of the ranch house where she had evidently run to escape her husband.

From the deep wounds in her throat a butcher knife was evidently used by the slayer. However, despite a search of the place by Under Sheriff Brain and the children of the mur-derer, the weapon was not found last night.

HAD QUARRELED.
Lagier and his wife are known to have been quarrelling for several days and Lagier is said to have been drinking heavily during that time. It seems evident that he made up his mind to kill his wife early in the day, as he appeared anxious for his son and daughter to leave. The ranch owner urged them to go to the beach or some amusement resort. Evidently they returned home before he could carry out his plan to kill himself.

Young Lagier reached the ranch
shortly before 1 o'clock in the afternoon. He had been to Redondo Beach on his motorcycle and his sister had gone to Los Angeles with a girl friend.
Shortly after the son got home the daughter also returned.

When the children reached the ranch house they found the doors
were locked and the windows shut.
This struck them immediately as strange as they had not been in the habit of locking up the house, even when all the members of the family were absent.

Fearing that something was wrong
the son and daughter approached the ranch-house cautiously. The son knocked on the door and his father's voice answered him.

"Who is it?" asked the slayer.
"It's me, father; open the door,"
said young Lagier.

"Go on away; I won't open the door.
Go away and leave me alone," was the reply.

"Where is mother?" asked Marie.
Lagier returned a mumbled answer.

"Father, where is mother? Tell me.
Nothing has happened to her, has
there?" asked the daughter.

Lagier began mumbling incoherently,
but eventually he saw that if he tried to keep his daughter and son out of the house longer suspicion would be aroused and his crime discovered.
This caused him to adopt a shrewd plan.

"Come on in. I have been asleep. I don't know where your mother is. I guess she is somewhere around the place," he said with apparent calmness.

The son and daughter entered and
found their father lying on the bed.
He appeared to have been asleep. He arose, yawned, and rubbed his eyes
and said that he was sleepy, and that his head ached.

"I will go out to the barn, where it is quiet, and get some sleep," he said, as he shuffled out of the house.

He walked toward the barn, passing only a few feet from where the body of his wife lay, hidden by the grape vines. He never glanced toward the spot, but entered the barn and shut the door.

YOUNG ATHLETE RESCUES FOUR.

Tacoma Youth Is Eligible

BY DIRECT WIRE TO THE TIMES.
TACOMA (Wash.) July 21.—(Exclusive Dispatch.) Saving the lives of four young persons who had been caught by the swirling waters of the Puyallup River while bathing near Tacoma, Joe Bonds, aged 18, manager of last year's U.P. football team, yesterday gained for himself a position
among the eligible for a Carnegie hero medal.

Those rescued were Ruth Gerberich, aged 12, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. George Gerberich; Miss Harry
B. Blanchard, aged 13, and Miss Gertrude Malthaupt, aged 14, daughters of Mr. and Mrs. J. F. Malthaupt, and Parker Buck, aged 12, son of Mr. and Mrs. V. G. Buck.

SWIFT OFF THEIR FEET.
They were bathing near MacMor-

swift. Hand in hand, they waded 100 feet down the river, keeping close to shore. Unable to reach a stump in the depth of the water, they turned and tried to wade back. Almost at the instant that they turned about the swift water lifted them from their feet and carried them down stream.

Bonds, who had been sitting on the

swam to the girls and the boy, and carried them to the stump. He then

Irrespective of weather dared take a chance.

Yachtmen on Lake Michigan
suffered in the early morning from the cold and fishermen along the lake front bundled up in their winter sweaters. Despite the fact that the Weather Bureau gave out a "warm wave" bulletin yesterday, the wave did not materialize and tonight it looks further away than it did yesterday.

TEMPERATURES MODERATE.
Weather Bulletin Forecasts Warmer
Weather in Extreme Northwest
Toward Coast of Week.

WASHINGTON, July 21.—Moderate
temperatures will prevail over the northern half of the country during the first of the coming week, according to the weather bulletin tonight.
Warmer weather will reach the extreme Northwest about Thursday, extending eastward to the Atlantic at the end of the week. The temperature continuing warm in the West.

In the South the weather will be moderately warm. It will be unsettled and showery Monday over the northern districts east of the Rocky Mountains, followed by generally fair
weather during the rest of the week,
except in the Northwest, where there will be a return of unsettled weather
by Thursday or Friday. In the extreme Northwest and in the South
the week will be generally fair.

SNOW DAMAGES CROPS.
MICHIGAN PEACHES HURT.
[By Federal (Wireless) Line to The Times.]
PETOSKEY (Mich.) July 21.—
[Special Dispatch.] A light sprinkling of snow, falling at Carp Lake, twenty-eight miles north of this city, damaged the peach crop. It was particularly hard on the peach crop. The cold was intense for this time of the year and the worst damage was done
to the crops of all the farmhouses.

INTERFERENCE RESENTED.
Views Are Expressed Opposing Attitude of Senator Root on Subject of Panama Canal Tolls.

WASHINGTON BUREAU OF THE TIMES, July 21.—[Special Dispatch.]
"Everywhere I have been," said a retired newspaper man, who gets around the country a good deal, "the people are strong for regulation of the Panama Canal, without the aid or consent of any foreign country. They resent the interference of Great Britain and ask why we should spend over $400,000,000 in digging a canal, only to have foreign nations
dictate how it should be managed."

Speaking to The Times correspondent, Senator Chamberlain of the United States alone had the right to fix canal tolls and make regulations
for the management of the canal.
He said:

"I disagree with the views of Root,
Burton and Lodge that this country
cannot regulate the Panama Canal
without asking permission of any other country. I hold different views from those Senators with respect to the powers of Congress. I think they are mistaken about the construction of the Hay-Pauncefote treaty, and I hold that Congress has power to allow coastwise trade to pass through the canal without payment of tolls."

"Coastwise traffic is as much intra-national traffic as traffic through the Great Lakes, up the Mississippi or Columbia rivers. A canal zone has been ceded to the United States in perpetuity. Sovereignty over it has been given to the United States and money has been supplied by this country to construct it, so it's just as much the property of the United States as the canal and locks on the Columbia River."

"Senator Lodge and other Senators have admitted that we could not get a fair hearing before the Hague tribunal because we would have to meet the prejudices of all the European countries, so there is nothing for us to do but to administer our own affairs in our own way and not ask
the consent of any other country."

REVENGE PLOT IS BOOMERANG. Women and Two Men Accused of Counterfeiting. Try to Place Crime on Man and Wife in Chicago. Spurious Coins Secreted in Former Friends' Home.

CHICAGO BUREAU OF THE TIMES, July 21.—[Special Dispatch.] A woman's desire for revenge has landed two men and herself in the net of the Federal government on a charge of counterfeiting. One of the men has confessed. But for his confession of an innocent man and woman might have been in jail in his place. The intended victims of the plot are William Friedman and his wife, of No. 1725 West Thirtieth street, Chicago. David Gatox, No. 174 West Van Buren street, and Somewhere Abromowitz, No. 225 Maxwell street, are in the County Jail, charged with counterfeiting, and will be tried. The woman who is alleged to have conceived the plot, is Miss Sophia Hoffman, formerly of Chicago, but now in Louisville, Ky. Her arrest has been ordered.

TRIALS TO ENTICE WOMAN. Friedman and his wife, Miss Hoffman, and Somewhere Abromowitz were friends until late in the fall of 1911. About that time, it is alleged, Abromowitz attempted to persuade Mrs. Friedman to leave her husband and accompany him to Milwaukee. On complaint of the husband and wife, Abromowitz was arrested and charged with violating the Mann act. Abromowitz was acquitted. During the trial Miss Hoffman stood by the accused man, with the result that she had once been friendship among the four people became intense hatred, with the friends, arrayed against Abromowitz and Miss Hoffman.

BEGINS TO CONSPIRE. Then began a plot for revenge by Miss Hoffman, which reached its culmination when Capt. Porter of the secret service went to the Friedman home and after searching and finding twenty-five counterfeit half dollars secreted in drawers, closets, sewing machines and trunks, arrested Friedman and his wife. The plot took its unexpected turn when one of the conspirators confessed and a warrant was made out for the young woman herself. Gatox says that Miss Hoffman gave him three molds for half dollars. For $10 she hired Gatox to bring the three molds to Chicago, hunt up Abromowitz, engage his assistance and to carry the plot through. Gatox found Abromowitz, took him to his room and told him of the plan arranged by Miss Hoffman. Abromowitz is said to have agreed to carry out the plan laid by the woman. The two men worked in Gatox's room and made the counterfeit coins. Then, according to Gatox's confession, he was given $50 by Abromowitz to conceal the home-made coin in the Friedman home. After a long watch at the Friedman home, Gatox succeeded in entering the house and hiding the coins.

WALLOWS RAT POISON. Shortage Found in Her Accounts. Chicago Woman Lodge Treasurer Ends Her Life. CHICAGO BUREAU OF THE TIMES, July 21.—[Special Dispatch.] After an auditing committee gave over the books of Mrs. Myrtle Redburn, treasurer of the Mystic Lodge, No. 1200, the woman swallowed rat poison and died. "The money was stolen out of the lodge," was the dying statement she made. Friends believe she told the truth when she said the money had been stolen. It has been made up to the lodge by her father, who is wealthy.

FIND POISON IN STOMACHS. Chemist in Milwaukee Reports Arsenic in Bodies of Chicago Woman's Alleged Victims. CHICAGO BUREAU OF THE TIMES, July 21.—[Special Dispatch.] Poison has been found in the bodies of two or more of the alleged victims of Mrs. Louisa Lindloff, who is now under indictment on the charge of killing her second husband for life insurance. Dr. J. J. Nathan of Milwaukee has reported that the local authorities have found arsenic in the bodies of Mrs. Lindloff's first husband, of Mrs. Lindloff, and John Otto Lindloff, who was killed in both stomachs. In the body of Otto Lindloff yielded two and one-half grains of arsenic, while the body of Lindloff yielded two and one-half grains. An inquest will be ordered and the bodies of the two alleged victims freed of the charges immediately reburied and taken to Milwaukee for trial.

SPENDER AS AMBASSADOR. Editor of Westminster Gazette and Son of a Novelist May Succeed in Washington. LONDON, July 21.—[Special Dispatch.] It is again reported, this time from a number of sources, that Mr. Alfred Spender, editor of the Westminster Gazette, is to succeed James W. Aldrich as British Ambassador in Washington. The post has a salary of $14,000. Mr. Spender is the son of Mrs. J. K. Spender, the novelist. He was born in 1862 and is an Oxford graduate. He was editor of the Eastern Morning News at Hull from 1896 to 1900. He joined the staff of the Westminster Gazette in 1902, but left it the same year. He purchased the Westminster Gazette in 1905, but it became its Assistant Editor and succeeded to the editorial chair in 1906. It now ranks as one of the chief government organs.

TEXAN WANTS A WIFE. He Has a Bunch of Money and Tells Chicago Postmaster He "Is Not Hard to Look At." CHICAGO BUREAU OF THE TIMES, July 21.—[Special Dispatch.] "There is a chance for a good woman between the age of 18 and 30, to win a nice home down in Texas. The age limit is the only qualification. Write to No. 3402 West Thurston street, San Antonio, Tex., send photograph and pedigree, and take your chance."

Postmaster Campbell has received this letter which explains itself. Being too busy to hunt up wives, even for rich Texans, he has asked his friends of the press to do a little advertising for him. The letter reads as follows: "Dear Sir:—I am tired of living alone. I want to share my life and possessions with a good woman between 18 and 30 years old. I am 45 years old, strong and healthy, not hard to look at as men go, own a ranch of 3000 acres, have 15,000 in the bank, own 1000 head of cattle, 100 head of mules and 200 head of horses. After over twenty years in Texas by hard work I have succeeded in amassing all the wealth I need. But in my years of labor I have scarcely thought of marriage. Now I am content to settle down. I know few women and none that I would wish to marry, so I am writing to you in the belief that somewhere in your great city there are some good women who would be glad to find a good husband and a good home. I will dress all letters to No. 3402 West Thurston street, San Antonio, Tex."

SHUBERTS LOSE THEATRE. They Will Probably Have to Relinquish the Lyric in Chicago at Expiration of Present Lease. CHICAGO BUREAU OF THE TIMES, July 21.—[Special Dispatch.] The Shuberts have lost one of their best theaters in Chicago, the Lyric, although they may be able to hold the lease for the two years it still has to run. At the end of that time, however, it will be surrendered to the Alcazar Theatre Company, a concern which has made a fortune in State street moving picture houses. The Alcazar management has closed a lease for a large term of years, at an aggregate rental of $400,000. Vaudeville of the cheaper brand will be inaugurated in the new house under the Alcazar management. The lease comes as a direct shock to the Shuberts, inasmuch as it was understood the Lyric would be used in the vaudeville circuit the Shuberts are forming.

ELOPES WITH A CHAUFFEUR. Less Than Three Weeks After Her Divorce Ex-Wife of a Banker's Son Again Becomes a Bride. NEW YORK BUREAU OF THE TIMES, July 21.—[Special Dispatch.] Less than three weeks after Andrew J. Bell of Stanford, Cal., Mrs. Elise P. Bell, only daughter of John P. Phillips, wealthy treasurer of Phillips Chemical Company, eloped with Thomas N. English, a young chauffeur of Stanford, whose chief asset is good looks and good figure. Mrs. English is 24 and vivacious and English is a few years older. When she was 17 she eloped with Andrew J. Bell, a young business man of Stanford, son of J. P. Phillips, president of the First National Bank. About two years ago they separated and Mrs. Bell applied for a divorce, alleging cruelty.

Wilson on the Trusts. He Thinks Existing Laws Are Sufficient to Curb Them—The Democratic Expression Coming. WASHINGTON BUREAU OF THE TIMES, July 21.—[Special Dispatch.] The approval of Gov. Woodrow Wilson, Speaker Champ Clark, Representative Oscar W. Underwood and other leaders of the Democratic party will voice his attitude toward the trust question in the majority report of the Stanley Steel Investigating Committee. This attitude is and will be for the next four years—in the event of Democratic success at the polls—that the trusts shall be regulated by existing laws and amendments, and that the Federal incorporation and government regulation of prices are unnecessary. It is intended that the majority and minority reports of the Stanley Steel Committee shall draw the line of demarcation between the two parties on the trust question. The Democratic report condemns governmental regulation of prices and Federal incorporation. The minority report now in course of preparation will approve in substance the plan advocated by Col. Roosevelt, Judge E. H. Gary, George W. Perkins and in part advocated by the President.

Sanitation Obnoxious. New Jersey Is Moved to Repeal Individual Drinking Cup Law by Protests of Thirsty Thousands. TRENTON (N. J.), July 21.—[Special Dispatch.] New Jersey, as well as other Eastern States, the Legislature of which have copied those of the West in the passing of drastic sanitary laws, made public opinion opposed to many of these enactments. The law which was passed a year ago banning public drinking cups has made it impossible for the thousands of travelers on Jersey trains to get a drink in this hot and thirsty weather. The railroad companies are enforcing the law to the letter and only those carrying cups of their own can drink from the train "coolers."

TEXAN WANTS A WIFE.

He Has a Bunch of Money and Tells Chicago Postmaster He "Is Not Hard to Look At."

CHICAGO BUREAU OF THE TIMES, July 21.—[Special Dispatch.] "There is a chance for a good woman between the age of 18 and 30, to win a nice home down in Texas. The age limit is the only qualification. Write to No. 3402 West Thurston street, San Antonio, Tex., send photograph and pedigree, and take your chance."

Postmaster Campbell has received this letter which explains itself. Being too busy to hunt up wives, even for rich Texans, he has asked his friends of the press to do a little advertising for him. The letter reads as follows: "Dear Sir:—I am tired of living alone. I want to share my life and possessions with a good woman between 18 and 30 years old. I am 45 years old, strong and healthy, not hard to look at as men go, own a ranch of 3000 acres, have 15,000 in the bank, own 1000 head of cattle, 100 head of mules and 200 head of horses. After over twenty years in Texas by hard work I have succeeded in amassing all the wealth I need. But in my years of labor I have scarcely thought of marriage. Now I am content to settle down. I know few women and none that I would wish to marry, so I am writing to you in the belief that somewhere in your great city there are some good women who would be glad to find a good husband and a good home. I will dress all letters to No. 3402 West Thurston street, San Antonio, Tex."

RALLYING TO TAFT BANNER.

Republican City and County
Club Crystallized.

Ringed Arrangement of the Three Term Monte Man.

Campaign in Hands of Strong Executive Body.

With the nomination and election by acclamation of Robert Sweeney as president of the Republican City and County Club at a ringing meeting at Delmonico's Saturday the organization crystallized swiftly to a trained, coherent force which will direct the local campaign for the re-election of President Taft in November.

Vincent Morgan presided and the principal address was made by Attorney Kenton A. Miller of Long Beach, who brought the crowd to its feet with a ringing arraignment of the fomenters of the so-called progressive third party and the declaration that the association of Lincoln's name with that of Roosevelt was a greater wrong to the martyred President than the assassin's bullet.

In stating that the work of reconstruction must come from the inside of the party and not from the outside, the speaker drew attention to the character antithesis to be found in Lincoln and in Roosevelt. Lincoln was the conservative reconstructionist, patient, long-suffering under the feverish criticism just before the war. He was the slow builder and painstaking searcher after truth. Roosevelt the speaker placed in the class with the agitators that fought the great war President.

PERMANENT ORGANIZATION.
Following the address, Chairman Morgan was immediately asked to throw the meeting open to the business of permanent organization. Attorney Sweeney was placed in nomination and the election went through with a shout.

Attorney Sweeney is originally of Spokane, where his father is a wealthy business man. He was a member of the Federal courts at Porto Rico for two years and since coming to Los Angeles has risen rapidly to prominence.

The meeting has crystallized the Republican campaign movement in the county. The organization is composed of the strongest men in the local party. Dr. Norman Bridge is first vice-president; Dr. C. B. Dickson, second vice-president; Kenton A. Miller, third vice-president; Oscar L. Horn, secretary; Vincent Morgan, chairman of the Executive Committee; Ewald E. Selph, chairman of the Campaign Committee.

"We are Republicans," said chairman Morgan yesterday. The word Republican is not qualified in any manner and never will be. There is no descriptive adjective that can precede the word Republican, that can strengthen its meaning. There is no meaning but that of Republican. We do not intend to oppose anything except those things and men who oppose Republicanism. Our work from now on is to campaign for the national ticket as selected by the Republican party. As the work progresses the club will undoubtedly lend its support to candidates for Assembly and State Senate who will be pledged to support the Republican ticket. Any man who is not absolutely outspoken in his desire to carry out the wishes of the people in selecting electors that are pledged to the nominee of the Republican party will meet with the opposition of this club, and it will be stern and unequivocal opposition.

The club will meet every Saturday noon, unless other plans are decided upon. One or two good speakers will be heard at each meeting.

EXECUTIVE COMMITTEE.
The Executive Committee is composed of the following:

W. C. Patterson, Philip J. Beveridge, H. W. Skelton, F. E. Hand, Dr. C. B. Dickson, Dr. L. J. Huff, Dr. E. Jones, Arthur Velch, V. Morgan, A. J. Barrett, C. C. Roberts, R. H. Dow, W. F. Ball, Hon. DISSENTING LEGALITIES.

Arizona Supreme Court Tries to Smooth Over Difficulties Caused by Haste of New Law-Makers.

The unusual judicial duties which have devolved on the Supreme Court of Arizona since the induction of that territory into the Union, have made it essential for Chief Justice Alfred Franklin to seek a rest and he is passing a few days at the Van Nuys.

"There are numerous ambiguities in the constitution and numerous knotty legal tangles have resulted," said Franklin yesterday. "It will take considerable time to unravel all of these. One of the important decisions which the court is called upon to make at the present time rests in the assumption that the constitution of the territory intended or did not intend a general election of State officers to take place this fall at the time of the Presidential election.

"Should the decision of the court be handed down that the election is not required, it would mean that incumbents in office will hold over for two years, including the members of the Supreme Court, while otherwise, they would have to seek re-election after short terms.

Franklin will go to his home in Phoenix in a few days.

Robert Sweeney, president.

MAN ON SATAN'S SNARES.

The auditorium has a seating capacity of more than 2000, and there were few vacant seats at the meetings yesterday.

The opening event was a flag raising at 7 o'clock at the auditorium building. The flag is a large one and was presented by Hamburg's. The services were conducted by Rev. G. E. Foster with an out-door audience of 2000 people. When the flag was broken out the entire congregation followed in singing "The Star Spangled Banner."

At 9 o'clock a love feast service was conducted by Rev. T. S. Uren, a retired clergyman of Huntington Beach.

The principal meeting of the day was in the auditorium at 10:10 and was opened by a song service under the direction of C. P. Curry. The choruses numbered about 100 and made up of church singers from many Southern California churches. Evangelist Curry has a voice of rare power and sweetness and his solos will be a prominent feature of the meetings. Prayer was offered by Rev. F. D. Malher, superintendent of the Pasadena district. The announcement of the offering was made by Rev. S. A. Thompson, superintendent of the Nevada mission district.

VIVID PERSONALITY.

Quite unlike the usual conception of an evangelist, is John Brown. As he walked to the front of the platform to deliver his first sermon of the meeting he appeared more like a magnetically charged representative of the clean, aggressive, energetic young business man of the Southwest. He wore a light blue suit, a white shirt, a white tie, and a white pocket square. His manner was easy, yet polished, and his delivery was clear and forceful.

"I am going to talk to you a little while about hope," he said in beginning. "It is better to be hopeful than to become discouraged. It is better to look on the bright side of the picture than to continually making pessimistic journeys to the juniper tree. More and more I am learning to look on the bright side of everything and leave the results with God."

When those who are considered the most frequently discouraged are the most frequently discouraged. Our hours of greatest discouragement are those when we are at our greatest achievements.

"Laugh and grow fat is advice well worth following. It is good religion and it is good sense. The man who lives a life of constant hope, why not? God is hopeful concerning us, and He knows all our past, present and our future."

"I don't want one note of discouragement, sorrow or any other thing to come into your hearts. I want you to have a long face or a cheerful face anywhere on the campgrounds."

"I am going to give you one or two convincing reasons why you should be hopeful. First, because God loves you and knows all about you and has promised that all things shall work together for good. Further, because one of us can judge our worth or our work."

"Egotism is at the bottom of all discouragement. I often see a preacher become very indignant when his audience is inattentive or unresponsive—as he says, for the Lord loves him. I have later learned the desire for personal recognition is the beginning and the end of pessimism. Actually, there is no such thing as failure when you are working for God."

THE MIDDLE WAY.

"I have learned to leave everything with God. Some of the work which at the time seemed to be the least effective, I have later learned was most richly productive. On the other hand I am not in sympathy with the other extreme. It is a question which is worse, the pessimistic or the optimistic idiot—men who get drunk on sunshine and have it all figured out that the millennium is at hand and that everybody has sprouted wings twenty feet long. I do not see the situation that way. I have traveled too much and I have been bumped too often."

In addition to two general evangelistic meetings every day, conducted by Brown and Curry, Bible classes will be held forenoon and afternoon and rallies will be held by the Woman's Home Missionary Society and Woman's Foreign Missionary Society. The Sunday-school Epworth League Institute will hold meetings every forenoon during the first ten days.

A recreation programme has been arranged for each afternoon, consisting of tennis, baseball, croquet, hikes, boating and fishing. The playground facilities for children are much more elaborate than in former years. Rev. G. E. Foster is in charge of the meeting and arrangements. The directors of the association are Rev. J. L. Pitzer, Rev. Charles H. Scott, Rev. F. D. Malher, Rev. F. M. Leikin, Rev. S. A. Thompson, Rev. G. E. Foster and Rev. Alfred Inwood.

HAWAIIANS PROSPEROUS.

New Capital and Extensive Plantations Keep People Busy—Not Afraid of Japanese Activities.

Prosperity in the Hawaiian Islands has never been greater, according to Max Greenbaum, one of the extensive land-holders and traders of Honolulu who is on his way to Washington on business, and who registered yesterday for a brief sojourn at the Van Nuys.

"New capital is being invested in the islands right and left," said Greenbaum. "The present military force of this country on the islands would readily take care of such an event. He spoke intelligently of the sugar, pineapple and possibilities of success of young men in Hawaii. He himself has lived there for twenty years and is a native of Australia."

MUNICIPAL POLICE COURTS.

that the municipal court costs the criminal rather more in court costs than the police court system because the system operates with exact science down to the computation of the minutes detail and has consequently acted as a deterrent of crime.

A change in the jury system is recommended because jury getting in the lower courts is not now on a business basis. An officer is simply given a writ of venire and he picks up the first men he meets on the street who are not engaged and who cannot give some good excuse for avoiding service. They get no pay for serving, they do not even get their meals.

At the last Legislature a bill was introduced which provided a regular panel jury system for the lower courts. The jurymen drawn and qualified to serve for three months and to receive $2 per day. The measure was voted down because it was understood by the legislators from this city which, being the only city in its class, was the only one that would have been affected had the measure been adopted.

TOMORROW, BOOKLOVERS' CONTEST PICTURE NO. 1.

"The Times" Great Game and Your Chance to Win Valuable Prize.

Get tomorrow's Times whatever else happens. It will contain what you have been looking for—the first picture in the booklovers' contest, a unique and profitable one. See if you can solve tomorrow's picture. It will represent the title of a book. Use your ingenuity and see if you can find the title. There are over 7500 in prizes for those who come closest to naming what book titles the contest pictures represent.

There will be seventy-seven pictures in all. They will appear one by one in the Times, one each day for seventy-seven days. Contestants are required merely to save these pictures, solve them, and turn them all in together at the end of the contest. Do not send these pictures in separately. Save them as they appear, and send all seventy-seven, with the answers you wish to submit, after the picture has appeared.

Amusement is in store for those who clip out these pictures each day and solve them. And a tremendous profit. It's just a game of solving pictures—no canvassing, no soliciting. The Times is presenting a pleasant pastime for its readers, and it wants all of you to play for all the fun that's in it! You have no idea how interesting it is to solve these pictures. In order to appreciate the fascination of

IN THE CHURCH

DR. LOCKE.

FIRST METHODIST CHURCH.
MANY OF THE GRAVEST MENACES TO THE HOME ARE THOSE WHICH STRIKE FROM WITHOUT.

Dr. Charles Edward Locke preached yesterday evening at the First Methodist Episcopal Church on the subject, "The Enemies of the Home—Those Outside of the Citadel." These enemies are the divorce, the Tainted Theater, Clubs, the Tainted Restaurant, etc. His text was: "If the godman of the house had known in what watch the thief would come, he would have watched, and would not have suffered his house to be broken up." Matt. 24:43. He said in part:

"Athens and liberalism are long-standing enemies of the home citadel. The atheist is fool enough to declare his belief outright, but the liberalist avows that he is a God worshiper, and then proceeds to live and act as if there was no God anywhere."

"Disregard of the Sabbath is a deadly enemy of the home. It is a physical necessity. The Sabbath is the great home day; the one day in the seven when the father can get acquainted with his wife and children. When the Sabbath shall become a day when the father will become a slave and the mother will become a tyrant. The so-called 'smart set' are making a mockery of the Sabbath. Why is it when some people get a little prosperous they immediately commence to play the game of the Sabbath? They are happy to honor and insult it!"

"One of the most brazen enemies of the home is the present day theater. Many of the popular plays are full of evil influences, dealing as they do with indecency and the most degrading themes. How degraded are the people who become when theaters cannot be built large enough to accommodate the crowds who pay high prices to see actors and actresses of questionable characters produce vulgar plays."

"The education which a degenerate gives our nation today has much to do with the widespread regard of the sanctity of the marriage vow. Because the corrupt themes and climates of many plays have to do with the questionable and unwholesome relationships which a husband or wife may have with another woman or man."

"A deadly and aggressive enemy, as everybody knows, is the home is the liquor traffic. With the saloons, the gambling den and the impure resort, as its inevitable accessories. In this country annually $1,000,000,000 are spent for twenty leading vices. The twenty leading vices cost the country $1,000,000,000. For the liquor traffic employs 302,457 men."

"In superstitious places the home is being nibbled to death. What with women's clubs, and men's clubs, and reading clubs, and thimble clubs, and club clubs and country club clubs, and city clubs and suffrage clubs, is to become of the freeds?"

"Clubs are epidemic. Some of these are commendable, but others are necessary? Is it not a good thing for a wife and mother to be in the home? Is it not a good thing for a husband and father to enjoy an easy chair in his own living-room?"

"The most monstrous enemy of the home today is easy divorce. During the early centuries of Christianity divorce was considered an immoral act. The loose divorce laws of most of the States are very serious and have done much to destroy the home circle. There should be, as in the case of a man, but one legal cause for divorce. That is, reason—adultery. It would work some hardship, but such a treatment would cure the disease. Marriage would not be treated as lightly if it was understood to mean that it was for life. There are more than twenty causes for divorce in the United States. We stand against all of them. We stand against the easy divorce. We stand against the easy divorce. We stand against the easy divorce."

CENTRAL BAPTIST CHURCH.
"PIETA" A DEADLY ENEMY.
NEXT OF THE UNDYING LOVE OF A PARTIAL WOMAN.

Michaelangelo's "Pieta" was the topic of a sermon by Dr. Arthur S. Phelps at the Central Baptist Church last night. He said that the picture was a masterpiece of art and that it was a masterpiece of art. He said that the picture was a masterpiece of art and that it was a masterpiece of art. He said that the picture was a masterpiece of art and that it was a masterpiece of art.

"One has said that in the Pieta, the sculpture, art and Christianity are united. Only twenty-four years of age, the sculptor was deeply and passionately religious. He had come to a realization of the truth of the Christian religion. He had come to a realization of the truth of the Christian religion. He had come to a realization of the truth of the Christian religion."

THE HONORS WERE EVEN.

Schwenck and Levens are Knocked Out.

Ivan Howard Bossed the Angel Band.

Cap Dillon Out of the Game; Father Died.

Morning game: Sacramento, 8; Los Angeles, 7.
Afternoon game: Sacramento, 8; Los Angeles, 7.
Owing to the death of his father, Cap Dillon was out of the game yesterday and the command of the Angel band devolved upon Ivan Howard, who incidentally made an unassisted double play at second.

As a straw boss, he proved to be heroic. When the game was testing in the hand of Providence with the score 6 to 5 in the seventh, he allowed his team-mate, Brother Levens, to walk just one man before spanking him from the box. Magie, who was put in his place, held down the Senators, while the Angels snubbed two more runs from Arroyos and the game.

It was a great game, full of sensational plays, and ended with a grandstand finish.
The morning game was rather tame, except for the fact that Pete Daley made a few choices. He marked at the umpire and was chased to the clubhouse, $10 the poorer.

Williams, the Hawaiian, pitched a superb game, while eight hits were made off him, three of them clean. Timmy hits by O'Rourke and Van Buren and Sheehan in the first, and O'Rourke and Lewis in the third. O'Rourke and Lewis in the third, brought in Sacramento's five runs.

In the afternoon game, the first man to bat, slammed out a three-base hit on Levens and scored on O'Rourke's fly. Sheehan scored in the second on Schwenck's delivery and was brought in by Van Buren's two-bagger.

The Angels were unable to get any action on Schwenck's delivery until the second when, with two men out, Metager singled and was caught by Brooks' single to left.

The fun began in the third when the Angels came to bat with the score 3 to 1 against them.
Howard started the excitement with a single to left and immediately rubbed it in by stealing second. The Sacramento catcher made a frantic dive down that direction, but the ball went high and wild. Howard hit shooting overhead and lit off for third like a scared jack rabbit. He scored as Barker cut out to right.

Pete Daley connected with a single to left and was advanced to second by Heinie Heinmuller. Heinie's assistance was in vain, however. As he stood up to bat, the pitcher heaved a ball that cracked up against Heinie's ribs; it sounded like hitting a circus tent.

When Moore came to bat, he popped up a little fly that hit on the line to third base. It looked to the ump as though it were a foul and Moore was dragged back to bat again. Just to show the ump, he cracked out a fierce drive by third. Tommy Sheehan grabbed it just in time and look around and see Pete Daley bearing down from second base like a runaway fire engine. He and Pete both slid for the base together. The ump thought Sheehan got there first. From the manager in which Pete bit the dust and howled and shook his fist, one would judge that he didn't think so.

Heinie and Moore both being on base, Metager came through with a tremendous three-bagger, scoring both of them. When Lober followed with a single, Deacon Van Buren sadly shook his head and said it was enough and signalled for Arroyos to come on and pitch.

The senior allowed no more disturbances of a riotous character. A double by Lober and a single by Brooks scored the former in the eighth.

Before that last ninth inning, it may be remarked that Sacramento did not score from the third to the eighth.

POMEROY WINS SPLASH ACROSS GOLDEN GATE.

SAN FRANCISCO, July 21.—Water Pomeroy of the Olympic Club of this city added to his swimming laurels today when he defeated a field of sixteen entrants in the first annual contest for the passage of the Golden Gate.

Pomeroy, who established the record of 24 minutes, 56 4-5 seconds, a year ago, swam across today in 47 minutes, 40 seconds. T. Rescure, leader of the Olympic Club, was second in 52 minutes; George Bond, Olympic Club, third, time, 57:40; Fred Beck, Cogswell High School, leader of the high school record, fourth, time, 54:35; and Balch, Dolphin Club, fifth, time, 74:02.

Only these five finished. The rest of the sixteen succumbed to the cold and the difficulties caused by a brisk west wind which drove choppy seas through the gate. They were all taken out of the water by the launches which accompanied the swimmers.

Capt. Clarke of the life-saving service, chose the time for the start.

NOLAN TO MAKE THINGS WARM FOR ABE ATTELL.

(BY DIRECT WIRE TO THE TIMES.)

SAN FRANCISCO, July 21.—[Exclusive Dispatch.] That there will be more to the split between Abe Attell and Manager "Billy" Nolan than the fighter's action in cutting loose, is intimated by Nolan, who says that he has spent considerable money in the interests of the featherweight and is not contented to let matters go. What Nolan may do is a problem for the future to decide, but the manager will doubtless make things uncomfortable for Abe.

Attell came out with a statement today in which he declared the story published of his break with Nolan was correct. He also says that he has decided to call off the match with Tommy Murphy on the ground that he is conceding too much weight. It is not his intention, so he says, to leave for the East, but he will remain on the Coast, hoping to land Johnny Kilbane for Labor Day in Los Angeles.

FEELING IS BITTER.
That there is bitter feeling existing is evidenced by the Attell statement. "I have decided to quit Nolan," he said. "When I signed up with him, it was with the understanding that he could get more for me than I could get for myself. I told him that while I was willing to fight lightweights, I would not concede more than 135 pounds ringside. Although that was understood, he urged me to make a concession for Murphy, saying that it was a holiday fight and we would make some good money. I gave way that time, but after the fight was postponed, Nolan went ahead and signed for an August match, still conceding weight. Then there was the trouble about that northwestern trip. They offered me $1000 to box Marino and I could not afford to give it up. Nolan demanded that I stay here, but I would not do it. Since I have returned he has been harping at me and quarreling all the time.

"I'M NO 'BAT NELSON."
"I am no Battling Nelson and Billy Nolan can't dictate to me. At the training quarters he was always telling me what to do, how to train and what to eat, and I know a little about that myself.
"As for the Murphy fight, it was made at a weight that did not suit me, and I will not fight the New Yorker under those conditions."
Attell, although he thinks he is deserving of sympathy, has not a leg to stand on. He has cut loose from the only restraining influence and deserves from now on to be barred from the ring so far as this State is concerned. He has broken a contract to which he was bound when his manager signed and he has proved by his actions that he does not care to walk the straight and narrow path.
In a word, Attell likes to pick his way, to have the ten-round matches and stall around as much as possible. WANTS EASY MARKS.
Much was done for him when his offense in attempting to frame the Murphy match was passed, but he is not appreciative of favors and doubtless thinks that he can work the same old game as long as he cares to do so.
Pleading for sympathy and declaring that he wanted to prove himself right, Attell turned back to make one of his barn-storming trips to Tacoma, where he boxed Marino, a boy Abe has repeatedly beaten.

GRAND CIRCUIT MEETING TODAY.

(A. P. NIGHT WIRE TO THE TIMES.)
DETROIT (Mich.) July 21.—Arrangements are completed for the opening tomorrow of the annual blue ribbon trotting meeting.

Five days of racing are scheduled and with the fastest horses in the grand circuit entered, the track is in excellent condition, and substantial purses promised, the management expects one of the best meetings in recent years.

Interests center in the race, Wednesday for the $10,000 Merchants and Manufacturers' purse.

WHIFFS FROM THE OLD SPORT PIPE

Owen Moran told his friends about town yesterday that he was through with his manager, Jimmy Johnson. Moran claims that his manager did not properly attend to his wants during training.

What his manager says about Moran is withheld for fear of its effect upon the young and innocent readers of the Pink sheet.

Jimmy Johnson says that Moran undoubtedly committed a technical violation of the rules in using his forearm on White. But he says that White was all the time pushing Moran's face back with his head.

"In the White-Thomas fight," said Jimmy, "White fouled Thomas deliberately and repeatedly and the referee said nothing about it. He bowed Harry on the jaw, almost breaking it in the entire nine rounds. Moran did not count as many fouls as White did in a single round of the fight with Harry Thomas."

Ad Wolgast will leave for his home in Cadillac this afternoon. There is no possibility of a Rivers fight before Thanksgiving or New Year's Day.

Ad will spend the rest of the summer on his farm, working with the hands.

He has gained nine or ten pounds since the Rivers fight and says that he feels in good health again.

Tom Jones will remain in California until after the hot weather is over in the East. Next week he will go on a yachting trip to the Santa Barbara islands.

OLYMPIC ATHLETES TO BE BANQUETED.

(By Federal Wireline) Line to The Times.
NEW YORK BUREAU OF THE TIMES, July 21.—[Special Dispatch.] Already honors await the Olympic athletes now on their way over from the newly-conquered fields.

The Irish-American Athletic Club has arranged to give a big banquet to the boys, while the city is contemplating a huge municipal celebration in their honor, with all clubs in the A.A.U. taking part in it.

Some of the members of the board of aldermen are reluctant at holding such an affair, as they claim it will entail too much expense on the city, inasmuch as all of the city employees who were on the team have been granted full pay while away, but the more generous ones, it is thought, will prevail upon the officers to realize what honors came to our country with the string of victories made on the other side.

TIGERS AGAIN TRIM BEAVERS.

Carlisle's Homer Turns the Tide of Battle.

Koestner Is Driven to Bench in the Seventh.

Roy Hitt Gets Bad Start, but Finishes Strong.

(BY DIRECT WIRE TO THE TIMES.)
PORTLAND (Or.) July 21.—[Exclusive Dispatch.] Those irresistible Yankees smashed their way through the Beaver defense for another touchdown this afternoon, driving Koestner from the mound with a bat onslaught which gave them an 8 to 1 victory over the once defiant Portlanders and incidentally bringing the series to a close with a record of four victories in five games, the worst drubbing the McCredie warriors have suffered on the home lot this season.

Walter Carlisle's drive over the right field fence, converting a 2-0 Portland margin into a 3-2 score with a Vernon flavor, turned the tide, which had run toward the Beavers for the first four innings, unmanned "Sphinx" Koestner and paved the way for his relegation to the bench after a seventh-inning hottest made the score 8-2.

It was in the fifth inning that there came a walk, a single and Carlisle's poke over the fence for three runs. This made the score only 3-3 with a chance of a tie or a defeat, so availing themselves of the wobbly Koestner offerings, rather than waiting for the usual ninth-inning bat averages fatteners, the seventh was chosen for the complete downfall of Koestner.

Carlisle opened with a single. Kane was safe at first, beating out an attempted sacrifice bunt, and the dust advanced on Hoag's sacrifice. Brasher smited the ball at Koestner, the sphere bounding to Lindsay, who tossed out the runner at second. Carlisle scored. Bayless walked. Kane scored on a wild pitch. Litschi doubled down the third-base line and Burrell followed with a single to the same spot, scoring Bayless and Litschi. Agnew's single to left scored Burrell from second.

Greig replaced Koestner in the eighth and managed to drive off further scoring, but he walked one man and allowed three hits during his two innings on the mound.

HITT FINISHES STRONG.
Roy Hitt started the game a bad second to Koestner, but finished like a whirlwind. He allowed nine hits, against thirteen for Koestner and Greig, but good pitching and poor Beavers base running prevented his opponents from scoring in seven of the nine innings.

Bancroft's double and Lindsay's single scored the first run, while singles by Lindsay, Butcher and Rappa all placed over second base, accounted for the fourth inning tally.

The Beavers should have scored in the fifth, tying up the game for a few innings, but a double play slipped the rally. After Koestner had grounded out, Doane was hit by a pitched ball. Bancroft doubled to right, his second two sacks of the day. McCredie held Doane at third, but Bancroft, head down, saw for third.

Bayless relayed the ball to Agnew, who tossed to Litschi, nipping Bancroft on the line. Doane was sent home in the ninth but was tossed out. Litschi to Agnew. Score:

Root the Hoodoo and Make a Clean-up in Weather that Brings Out Overcoats—Giants Have Easy Time With Reds, Whose Pitchers Are Soft—Cardinals, With Bob Harmon on Mound, Stop Phillies in Their Climb.

CHICAGO BUREAU OF THE TIMES, July 21.—[Special Dispatch.] Chicago took both games of a double-header from its left-handed, Brooklyn.

Leftfield and Reulbach, both left-handers, were the winning pitchers. The games were played in winter weather, many of the fans wearing overcoats. Scores:

at every fight. Ryan's decision was the best thing that could happen to him. It is one that will not be trifled with. Abe had better stick to Billy if he expects to make any more money in the boxing game. Abe has never had a manager before and did as he pleased. But it will take him but a very short time to learn that as long as Nolan is his manager, he will do as Billy Nolan says. Billy jumped on his neck as soon as he found out that Abe was trying to break away. Look him out to Joe Miller's training camp and strap him right to work like a good little boy.

Now you had better stick to Billy for a while. Abe, while the going is good.

Complimented Guests.

Mr. and Mrs. George Foster of New York have been the complimented guests at several informal affairs during the last week.

Thomas Davidson entertained for them at their ranch, "Drumblings," and the Habs, and both Mrs. Michael Frances Reagan and Mr. and Mrs. Evans Mother arranged automobile parties in their behalf.

On Friday afternoon Mr. and Mrs. Max Wincorek held an informal reception at the Stratford, which was largely attended affair, in which music played an interesting part furnished by the talented Miss Oliver.

They are to return next Saturday after a pleasantly crowded visit.

aturday saw quite a number of players competing for the monthly prize against the Havana Club. Mrs. Alice Tobie still maintains her seat in an appearance for the week end, but she is not seen nearly often enough on the links lately. Mrs. Gabrielle Elliott, who has gone North to live permanently, is a very regular to the club, for she was both a golfer and tennis enthusiast, besides being terrifically interested in the dances and other social frolics. Miss Shirley Burns, another golfer upon whom the club is wont to depend, has gone to Idylwild for the rest of the summer. Mr. and Mrs. Silar R. Burns and their family have arranged an admirable trip with Idylwild as their headquarters. San Gabriel promises to be largely represented at Del Monte this year, with scores sending goodie contingents.

FROM THE MASON TO THE MAJESTIC

By JULIAN JOHNSON.

Of all the big stage jobs ever grabbed by talented Los Angeles women going East, I don't remember anything that sounds as big in advance, as the position just won by Florence Stone, now in Chicago.

Miss Stone is to create the leading feminine role in the Frazer and Ledee production of Eugene Walter's new American drama, "Fine Feather."

Rather than star any one person in this cast, the producers decided to give it an all-star cast.

It was "Fine Feather" which drew Max Fisman away from Morocco's "Truth Wagon," the coming season.

He is to be in the cast, and if I am not mistaken, Wilton Lackaye will also belong. I am sure that Robert Edson goes with the Walter play. I know of no premier in this country or in England, this year, that has excited more anticipatory interest.

Of course Miss Stone's absence in the East has stirred up that unkind old rumor about a separation between herself and her variously talented husband, Dick Ferris.

I sincerely hope that again it's all unfounded, for one is a prince of good fellows, just as the other is a princess.

I hear that Pop Fischer is negotiating with Irene Lanford, who was here with Uncle Ed Rice's "Cinderella" girls at Pantages, to act as leading woman of his Rice and Cady organization, opening at the Lyceum August 4.

Edward Buchner will be the new Fischer musical director, in all probability.

Harry James, the present director and producer, intends to go to New York after a few weeks' rest here.

Charles Alphin seems the most visible candidate for the job of producer of the Lyceum three-a-day.

Pop hopes to keep, from the present company, Reed Gardner, Jane Urban, Laura Oakley and Lon Chaney, but has settled with none of these people.

The Kolb and Dill company will cease entirely next week, and the Majestic will be dark while the company devotes all its energies to arduous final rehearsals of Frank Stammers' new show, "A Peck of Pickles."

"A Peck of Pickles" will be seen two weeks from last night.

Julian Ettling will play two weeks at the Mason Operahouse in one of the last season's biggest successes, "The Fascinating Widow," opening November 25.

Dustin Farnum will be seen at the Mason in "The Littlest Rebel," December 9.

Jack Barrymore says that for the first time in his life he likes to work. It is the climate, or the hilarious excitement of a new part a week!

If he is so enthused over the perspiration stage, it seems to me that Morocco can't "smack" "Anatole," which he is to do at the Little Theater in New York this fall and throw it on for some special matinee.

How about Harry Metcalf for the opposite role of Max?

That would be getting away from the special matinee favorites, Iben and Hixson, at least.

Muriel Starr is enthusiastic about "The Taming of Shrews." The latest announcement that it is to be done at the Belasco following "The Man from Home," leaves her breathless with anticipatory delight.

Incidentally, Starr wears boy's clothes for an act or two of this highly unusual punch drama, the kind Mr. Mannors says are going out of fashion.

"Is this man Mannors an established success—an accredited success?" writes a curious correspondent.

To the best of our knowledge he is, but however that may be, it may at least be said of him that he keeps pegging away.

Texas Guinan's "Whistle It" song, which galloped away with Pop Fischer's "American Idea" opy yesterday, has an interesting local history.

One week ago Miss Guinan heard it on a phonograph.

She spent the afternoon hunting through all the music stores for it. It didn't find it. It hadn't yet reached the West.

That night she sent a night letter to New York.

Saturday morning a single copy reached her by mail from the metropolis.

A faithful musician sat up most of Saturday night orchestrating.

At 11 o'clock Sunday morning the orchestra score, still with its ink wet, was delivered to Director James. And at 3 o'clock she of the orchid eyes with the lotus lids cleaned up six scores with it.

Marjorie Rambeau has signed a contract with Henry W. Savage to appear in one of his "Everywoman" companies.

Oiga Stach returned to the cast of "Dream City" last night.

Another incident of international misunderstanding is closed.

Witter Bynner, who has been here working over the script of "His Father's House," expects to go East in a day or two.

Harry Duffield, I'm glad to state, seems much improved. His illness of last week seemed serious for a day or two.

Holbrook Blinn may produce, on trial here, Paul Armstrong's new play, "The Escape."

Blinn is due at the Majestic in Armstrong's "A Romance of the Underworld" this autumn.

Jack Belgrave is going to play "Pop" Clarke, the sanctimonious old crook, in the local "Deep Purple" presentation.

Dana Hayes is on the job as manager of the Tacoma Empire Theatre, and reports say that he is a very live little impresario.

The Shubert all-star Gilbert and Sullivan company, which opened at the San Francisco Cort Theater last night, will be seen here August 18.

Johnnie Kilbane has agreed to box Jean Driscoll if the latter will weigh in at 122 ringside.

MACK SAYS GAINTS WILL INCREASE LEAD.

(By Federal Wireless Line to The Times.)
NEW YORK BUREAU OF THE TIMES, July 21.—[Special Dispatch.]

Young Brown, the sensational East Side lightweight, will have his hands full at Madison Square Garden tomorrow night when he boxes Willie Reicher. Another star ten-round bout will bring to light Pat Moore and Quaker "Paddy" Maloney.

Two first-class featherweights, Tommy Buck and Frankie Fleming, the latter, champion of Canada, will clash in the third ten-round event.

Eddie McGoorty, the crack western middleweight, has been signed up by his manager, Marty Fortino, to meet Tommy Gavigan, the Cleveland fighter, in a ten-round contest at one of the clubs in Cleveland, the first week in August.

Johnny Kilbane has agreed to box Jean Driscoll if the latter will weigh in at 122 ringside.

CHARLEY WHITE TO GET FIRST CRACK AT DRISCOLL.

(By Federal Wireless Line to The Times.)
CHICAGO BUREAU OF THE TIMES, July 21.—[Special Dispatch.]

Charley White, the best featherweight produced by Chicago in a decade, has been offered the first crack at Jean Driscoll, the British champion, upon the latter's reaching New York from England next month.

White will accept the date, although he had been offered a date by the London promoters if he would consent to go to England and meet Driscoll before the National Sporting Club. The offer, however, appealed more strongly to Nat Lewis, White's manager.

White has established himself very strongly in New York by his defeat of Young Shugrue, Johnny Dundee and Owen Moran.

Florence Stone.

Who has achieved an eastern triumph apparently greater than that scored by any of our East-cent actresses in years, she will create the leading role in Eugene Walter's new play, "Fine Feather," which is to have its first production with an all-star cast, including Robert Edson, Max Fisman and others of national renown.

More Honors.

AMERICAN ATHLETES PERFORM AT BERLIN.

(BY CABLE AND A. P. TO THE TIMES.)

BERLIN, July 21.—Thirteen members of the American Olympic team, and the Greek champion, Teletira, today met the best of the German athletes in a series of games arranged by the Berlin Sport Club, as a sequel to the Stockholm contests.

The greatest interest centered in the 100 and 500-meters events, owing to the ascription of the German champions that they had been victims of unfair tactics at Stockholm.

The delight of the spectators was unbounded when the German sprinter, Rau, whose defeat in the semi-finals of the 100-meters at Stockholm was ascribed by him to the repeated false starts of Ralph C. Craig of the Detroit Y.M.C.A., finished ahead of the Americans, Donald F. Lippincott, University of Pennsylvania, and P. G. Gerhardt, Olympic A. C., in the 100-meters, and Braun defeated James E. Meredith, Mercesburg Academy, who won the 100-meters at the Olympic.

Meredith laid the pace over the whole distance, fighting a strong wind in the back stretch. He tired at the finish and Braun won by five yards in 1m. 54.7-10s. Meredith's time at the Olympic games was 1m. 51.7-10s. Time announced for the 100-meter dash was 10.7-10s. Lippincott won the 500-meters from Rau in 2m. 13.10s., breaking the German record.

No world's records were bettered, but the American, Ralph Rose, and the Greek, Teletira, respectively established new German marks in the shot put, 47ft. 7in., and the standing broad jump, 10ft. 1in.

George L. Horine, Leland Stanford University, won the high jump, clearing the bar at 6ft. 11-in. Mark S. Wright, Dartmouth, captured the pole vault with a jump of 11ft. 9-1-10s.

"JIM" DONAHUE SHINES.
(BY CABLE AND A. P. TO THE TIMES.)
COPENHAGEN, July 21.—A great crowd witnessed the games at the stadium here today, in which several members of the American Olympic team took part.

J. J. Donahue of the Los Angeles Athletic Club won the pole vault with a vault of 16ft. 5in., and the running broad jump with 29ft. 7in. Donahue was second in the high hurdles, which was won by Buhl, a Dane.

CUBS TAKE TWO FALLS.

When an officer of the United States army, commenting on the showing made by motor trucks in the army tests, said that the army would still use the army mule for many years to come, he by no means condemned motor trucks. No one ever expected the motor truck to do all that the army mule can do over rough country. Similarly, the mule cannot do what the motor truck can do, under some circumstances.
